

Your journey continues!

The next stop is magnificent and ancient – a castle that tells many stories from times long past. Set out to find the castle of the former electoral prince. Once you arrive in the courtyard, take a close look: Can you spot the coat of arms on the right tower?

If you look closely, you're already very close to the next clue!

Task 4:

What years are engraved on the coat of arms?

Let's continue your mission!

Head to the promenade along the Mosel. There, under the shade of the trees, something very special is waiting for you. Can you spot the giant chessboard? Take a close look and think: How many black squares do you think this chessboard has?

Count carefully – the right number will bring you one step closer to your goal!

Task 5:

Count the black squares on the chessboard.

The grand finale!

You've been searching, counting, and piecing things together – I think you've gathered enough clues by now!

Now add up all the numbers from the different stations.

Maybe the total will reveal the secret code to the amulet's hiding place...

Head to the place where tourists get information about the city. Everything points to the amulet being right there!

Present your findings confidently and confront the people there. Are you ready to solve the mystery once and for all?

Good luck – you're real treasure hunters now!

Enter the numbers you found here!

Hello, dear adventurers!

I'm Mia, the little black cat, and I live in the beautiful vineyards of Zell. My great-grandmother was the famous Zeller Schwarze Katz – I'm sure you've heard of her!

But now I have a huge problem...

For centuries, our family has owned a magical amulet that gives us cats special powers. We use it to help the winemakers with the grape harvest. That's the only way they can make the delicious "Zeller Schwarze Katz" wine that the whole world loves so much.

And now the amulet has been stolen!

My paw is frozen in stone; I can't help the winemakers anymore, and the upcoming harvest is in danger!

I've already gathered a few clues about where the amulet might be, but I can't solve the mystery on my own. Could you help me and save the wine?

If you solve the puzzle, a little surprise awaits you! Be brave, curious, and above all, have lots of fun!

I thank you in advance – I'm sure you'll do a great job!

Your adventure begins here!

Set out to find the statue of my great-grandmother. She has a hump, meows very softly, and even though she's surrounded by water, her feet always stay dry. Take a good look around – can you find her? Once you've found her, your journey really begins!

Task 1:

What year is inscribed on the fountain?

Let's move on to the next task!

Look for the large door to the town mayor's office. But be careful: this place hasn't always been dry – sometimes it was even surrounded by water! Take a really close look around there. A small plaque tells you how high the water rose during the great floods. Look to the left – the next step in your adventure awaits you there!

Task 2:

In what year did the highest flood, marked on the wall of the house, occur?

Now let's continue your adventure!

Keep an eye out for a large, colorful picture on a wall. To find it, head toward the church. There you'll discover a beautiful mosaic. Take a close look – because that's where you'll also find the large coat of arms of my hometown, Zell. Did you find it? Then you're one step closer to the treasure!

Task 3:

How many keys can you see in the Zell coat of arms?
